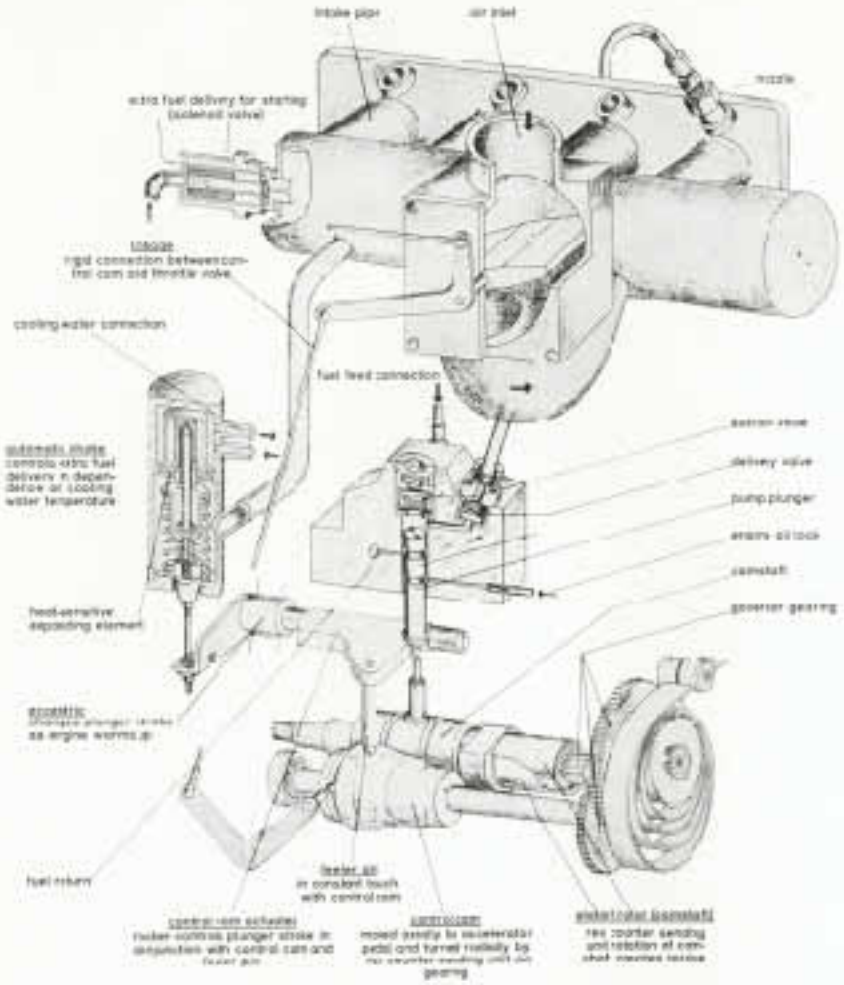
The angular position of the control cam is changed by the revolution counter sending unit via the governor gearing. It is thus that each angular position of the control cam is typical of a certain speed.


Operation of Kugelfischer petrol-injection pump